

ACS Oldham Hall

Maximising the potential of our boarders through Christian values

About ACS Oldham Hall

ACS Oldham Hall was established in 1886 together with Anglo-Chinese School (ACS) by Bishop (then Reverend) William F. Oldham.

Today, the Hall is a modern 400-bed boarding facility located at the ACS (Barker Road) campus.

ACS Oldham Hall accepts male and female boarders between 12 and 18 years old studying in recognised schools in Singapore.

The Singapore Ministry of Education awarded ACS Oldham Hall the Inter-Hostel Challenge Cup in 2018 as the overall best hostel across 3 categories: "Most Caring", "Most Integrated" and "Most Improved".
